EMPLOYCO USA

The Power to Compete

BULLETIN
June 01, 2020

DID WE MISS YOUR EMAIL?

We have hosted a number of webinars over the past few months, and sent out many informational bulletins that we hope everyone has found helpful. We are always here to answer any questions that you may have.

But, it has recently come to our attention that some emails may have been rejected by our spam filter. Due to recent scams involving keywords around COVID-19 and coronavirus, your replies to our messages may have been blocked and never delivered. We have worked on setting up email filters so that we can properly receive all replies going forward.

We apologize if you sent us a message and never received a response. We ask that you please resend anything you did not hear back on, we're here to help!

If you attended a webinar and did not receive a copy of the slides or recording, please visit our coronavirus web page. We include a copy of every bulletin we send out in date order. So, you can find any emails that may have hit your spam box: www.employco.com/coronavirus
